LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Lesson Six: Teachers Making a Difference

Providers will recognize the value of reflective practice as a means to intentional teaching strategies.

Providers will build a vocabulary of sincere descriptive praise.

Lesson Seven: Working with Families

Providers will recognize the impact of a positive responsive relationship between programs, providers, and families and identify strategies for building and supporting those relationships.

Providers will recognize the short term and long term impact of preschool expulsion on children, families, and society.

IDAHO EARLY LEARNING EGUIDELINES

Multiple strategies in the Idaho Early Learning eGuidelines emphasize the importance of appropriate expectations and intentionality in the child care environment which includes responsive caregivers and evidence based discipline practices. These are summarized in the Essential Practices within the guidelines:

“Ensure that children are provided with caregivers who interact in consistent and caring ways.”

“Use supportive verbal, visual, and physical cues in interactions and activities.”

“If the child needs extra support, simplify complicated tasks by breaking them into smaller parts or reducing the number of steps.”

“Encourage children to play and form relationships with other children.”

“Observe, recognize, and support children’s unique ways of approaching new information and expressing themselves; taking into consideration their temperaments, inclinations, and attitudes.”

“Provide a range of experiences to all children even though their responses may differ and some children may need adaptations.”

“Individualize experiences, activities, interactions, and instructions to meet the needs of each child.”

“Provide continued acknowledgments in ways that reflect children’s cultural beliefs and traditions so that all children feel valued. Support a sense of competence.”

“Help children learn to accept, understand, and manage their emotions.”

“Model and teach conflict resolution and problem-solving skills.”
